UNIT ONE REVIEW

Name ________________________  Hour ________  Due Date ________  Score _____ / _____

1. Five themes of geography. List and explain the five themes.
   1. _______________________________________
   2. _______________________________________
   3. _______________________________________
   4. _______________________________________
   5. _______________________________________

2. List the six things that should be on every map.
   1. _______________________________________
   2. _______________________________________
   3. _______________________________________
   4. _______________________________________
   5. _______________________________________
   6. _______________________________________

3. A regions that shares a uniform characteristic is a ___________________ _________________.
4. ______________________________ is a term we use instead of compass rose.
5. ______________________________ is the process of putting the round earth on a flat surface.
6. The zero degree longitude line is known as _________________________________.
7. The part of the map that indicates direction is the _________________________________.
8. GIS is an abbreviation for _______________________________ _________________________.
9. _________________________________ is a specific latitude and longitude.
10. A region that has boundaries determined by government is a ________________________.
11. ________________________________ are things made by humans.
12. Imaginary lines that run east and west on earth are known as ________________________.
13. A __________________________ is a 3 dimensional model of the earth.
14. A __________________________ map uses color to distinguish between qualities of quantities.
15. Inaccuracies that occur when taking the earth from round to flat are _____________________.
16. The part of the map that indicates distance is the _________________________________.
17. ______________________________ characteristics are things given to humans by earth. Not man made.
18. Large unbroken masses of land into which the earths surface is divided are _________________.

19. The science of map making is known as ____________________.
20. ________________ location is explaining where something is in relation to an already known place.
21. GPS is abbreviation for __________________ ___________________ ____________________.
22. Imaginary lines that run north and south on earth are known as __________________________.
23. __________________________ is the city that the Prime Meridian runs through.
24. The zero degree latitude line is known as ______________________________ .
25. Identify 7 continents, 4 oceans, and 5 lines of latitude and longitude.

26. Identify the five map projections below

27. Skills
   a. Identify different directions on a compass rose. (pg. 5)
   b. Use a map scale to determine distance on a map. (pg. 7)
   c. Use latitude and longitude to locate on a map. (pg. 13)